Southland's Famous Classic

The SBS Tour of Southland is recognised as New Zealand's leading multi-stage cycling tour. The event has established a proud and colourful history over the past 62 years and continues to attract immense interest both nationally and internationally.

The Southland region eagerly awaits this year's 63rd edition of the Tour and is proud to host this major sporting occasion, which offers an exciting challenge to all involved. On behalf of the organising committee I extend a warm welcome to all intending riders and visitors and look forward to meeting you in late October. I am sure you will enjoy the experience.
