TEAM MANAGER'S ROLE

On behalf of Cycling Southland, thank you for being a Team Manager in the 2026 SBS Bank Tour of Southland.

Your assistance is valued and we have outlined below some key areas, which may be of assistance to you in the Team Manager's role.

Your Team Sponsor forms a valued part of the Tour. Please acknowledge and appreciate their contribution at all times and encourage your team members to do the same.

DEFINITION

The Team Manager is the important liaison person between the "riders" and "event management". He/she also acts as an important ambassador for the Team Sponsor.

In order for the event to operate smoothly, we request that all riders' enquiries and/or concerns are directed through you, and then through to the appropriate personnel. If you are unsure of any items in this document or need further clarification, please contact Chief Commissaire Graeme Bell.

Race packs are to be collected from the Cycling Southland office on Saturday 31st October between 10–11am.

NUMBERS

The wearing of numbers shall be compulsory for all riders. The number shall be attached securely and worn as directed. The number shall be used by riders without any kind of alteration – not folded or reduced in size, and shall be in full view.

Riders shall wear two body numbers except for the Team Time Trial and Individual Time Trial, where one number shall be worn.

Frame numbers will be issued and should be fitted either behind the headset or seat post, and carry the same number as on the rider's body number. The frame numbers are to assist with the identification of riders for judging purposes.

The Team leading the Wensley's Cycles Team Classification are to wear the provided "blue" numbers.

TRANSPONDERS

Transponders for race timing purposes will also be issued. Details of fitting the transponders to your team riders' bikes will be issued at the first Team Manager's meeting on Sunday 1st November, 10:00am at the Northend Bowling Club, 112 Gala Street, Queens Park, Invercargill.

LICENSES

Licences are to be presented when collecting race packs if not already supplied to Cycling Southland.

VEHICLES

At all times (while moving) during the Tour, vehicle headlights are to be turned on and in the dipped position. Please note hazard lights are not to be used while driving in the convoy. This is a safety condition that must be complied with.

PRIZE MONEY

All prize money will be paid out as soon as the drug testing results have been received and any outstanding Team expenses have been paid.

TOUR RADIOS

Team radios will be picked up with team packs. It is your responsibility to take care of the radio.
All radio communication shall be on Channel 8.

If you experience any problems, please contact Red Burnett who will be accompanying the Tour. His mobile number is 027 281 8745.

They are to be returned to the Ascot Park Saturday night into bins allocated for radios and transponders.

No race radios (referring to communications between the team riders and team management) will be permitted in the 2026 SBS Bank Tour of Southland.

EQUIPMENT

It would be appreciated if any other Tour equipment you have is also returned to the caravan following the conclusion of Stage 8.

Set up team area is the allocated space indicated on the race headquarters map.

Please note the Kingston Flyer will move alongside the Tour around Fairlight on Stage 4.

DRUG TESTING

Drug testing is inevitable. The procedure for notifying the selected riders to undergo drug testing at the completion of stages will be discussed at the first Team Manager's meeting on Sunday 1st November.

This vehicle will have flashing lights, signage and loud speakers and will also provide protection to the front of the Race. This vehicle will remain 500m to 1km in front of the race and be in contact with the Traffic Management Supervisor.

The “Race Commentary” Car

This vehicle will have flashing lights, signage and loud speakers and will also provide protection to the front of the Race. This vehicle will remain 500m to 1km in front of the race and be in contact with the Traffic Management Supervisor.

The “End of Convoy” Vehicle

This vehicle is equipped with flashing lights, and signage indicating the “End of Race”. This vehicle is officially regarded as the last vehicle in the rolling block and is in direct contact with the Traffic Management vehicles and Commissaires. The “End of Race” vehicle will determine the safe movement of general public vehicles and Tour related vehicles.

“Tail End Charlie” Vehicle

This vehicle is positioned behind the last rider on the road, thus the title “Tail End Charlie”.

This vehicle, a Tomlins Building van, will have a CYCLE RACE AHEAD sign, prominently displayed on the rear of the vehicle in addition to the amber flashing warning lights.

The function of this vehicle is to warn public vehicles approaching the rear of the cycle race that there is a cycle race ahead. Its function is to also protect the riders in front and to stop and pick up any rider who withdraws from the event.

Three Other Commissaires’ Vehicles

These vehicles will also be fitted with flashing lights. Their position in the convoy is not constant and from time to time, will accompany the various bunches of riders who have fragmented from the main peloton.

Other Official Vehicles

- Advanced Traffic Management: STMS 1
- Other advanced signage setup crews
- Timekeepers
- Judges
- Marshals
- Media
- Ambulance and Doctor’s vehicles
- Official Motor Bikes
- Media support vehicles
- Other support vehicles as approved on a stage by stage basis.
  Where possible, these vehicles will also have radio communications.

These vehicles do not have a role in the movement of traffic. They have a specific role in the event and will from time to time, need to move past the peloton. Their movement is in conjunction with the Traffic Management Control and the Chief Commissaire.

These vehicles will all be issued with the Tour signage to associate them with the event.

Team Support Vehicles

In addition to the above vehicles there will be 17 teams entered in the Tour. Each team will have its own support vehicle. These support vehicles are all clearly identified as being part of the Tour. In general they remain behind the Peloton. The drivers of these vehicles will be briefed prior to the start of the event and instructed to keep to the left of the road and leave gaps to assist with passing manoeuvres by general public and other Tour vehicles. They have no responsibility for traffic control.

At various times there may be approximately 45 vehicles in the convoy. As previously stated, every effort will be made to ensure that these vehicles are clearly identified. All drivers will be briefed prior to the event about obeying all road rules.

Vehicle owners are responsible for their respective insurance.

Health & Safety

Cycling Southland has made every endeavour to ensure that areas of traffic control around the race provide for a safe event. The procedures in this Event Manual are to be adhered to by all involved with the Tour of Southland, including riders, officials, media and support teams.

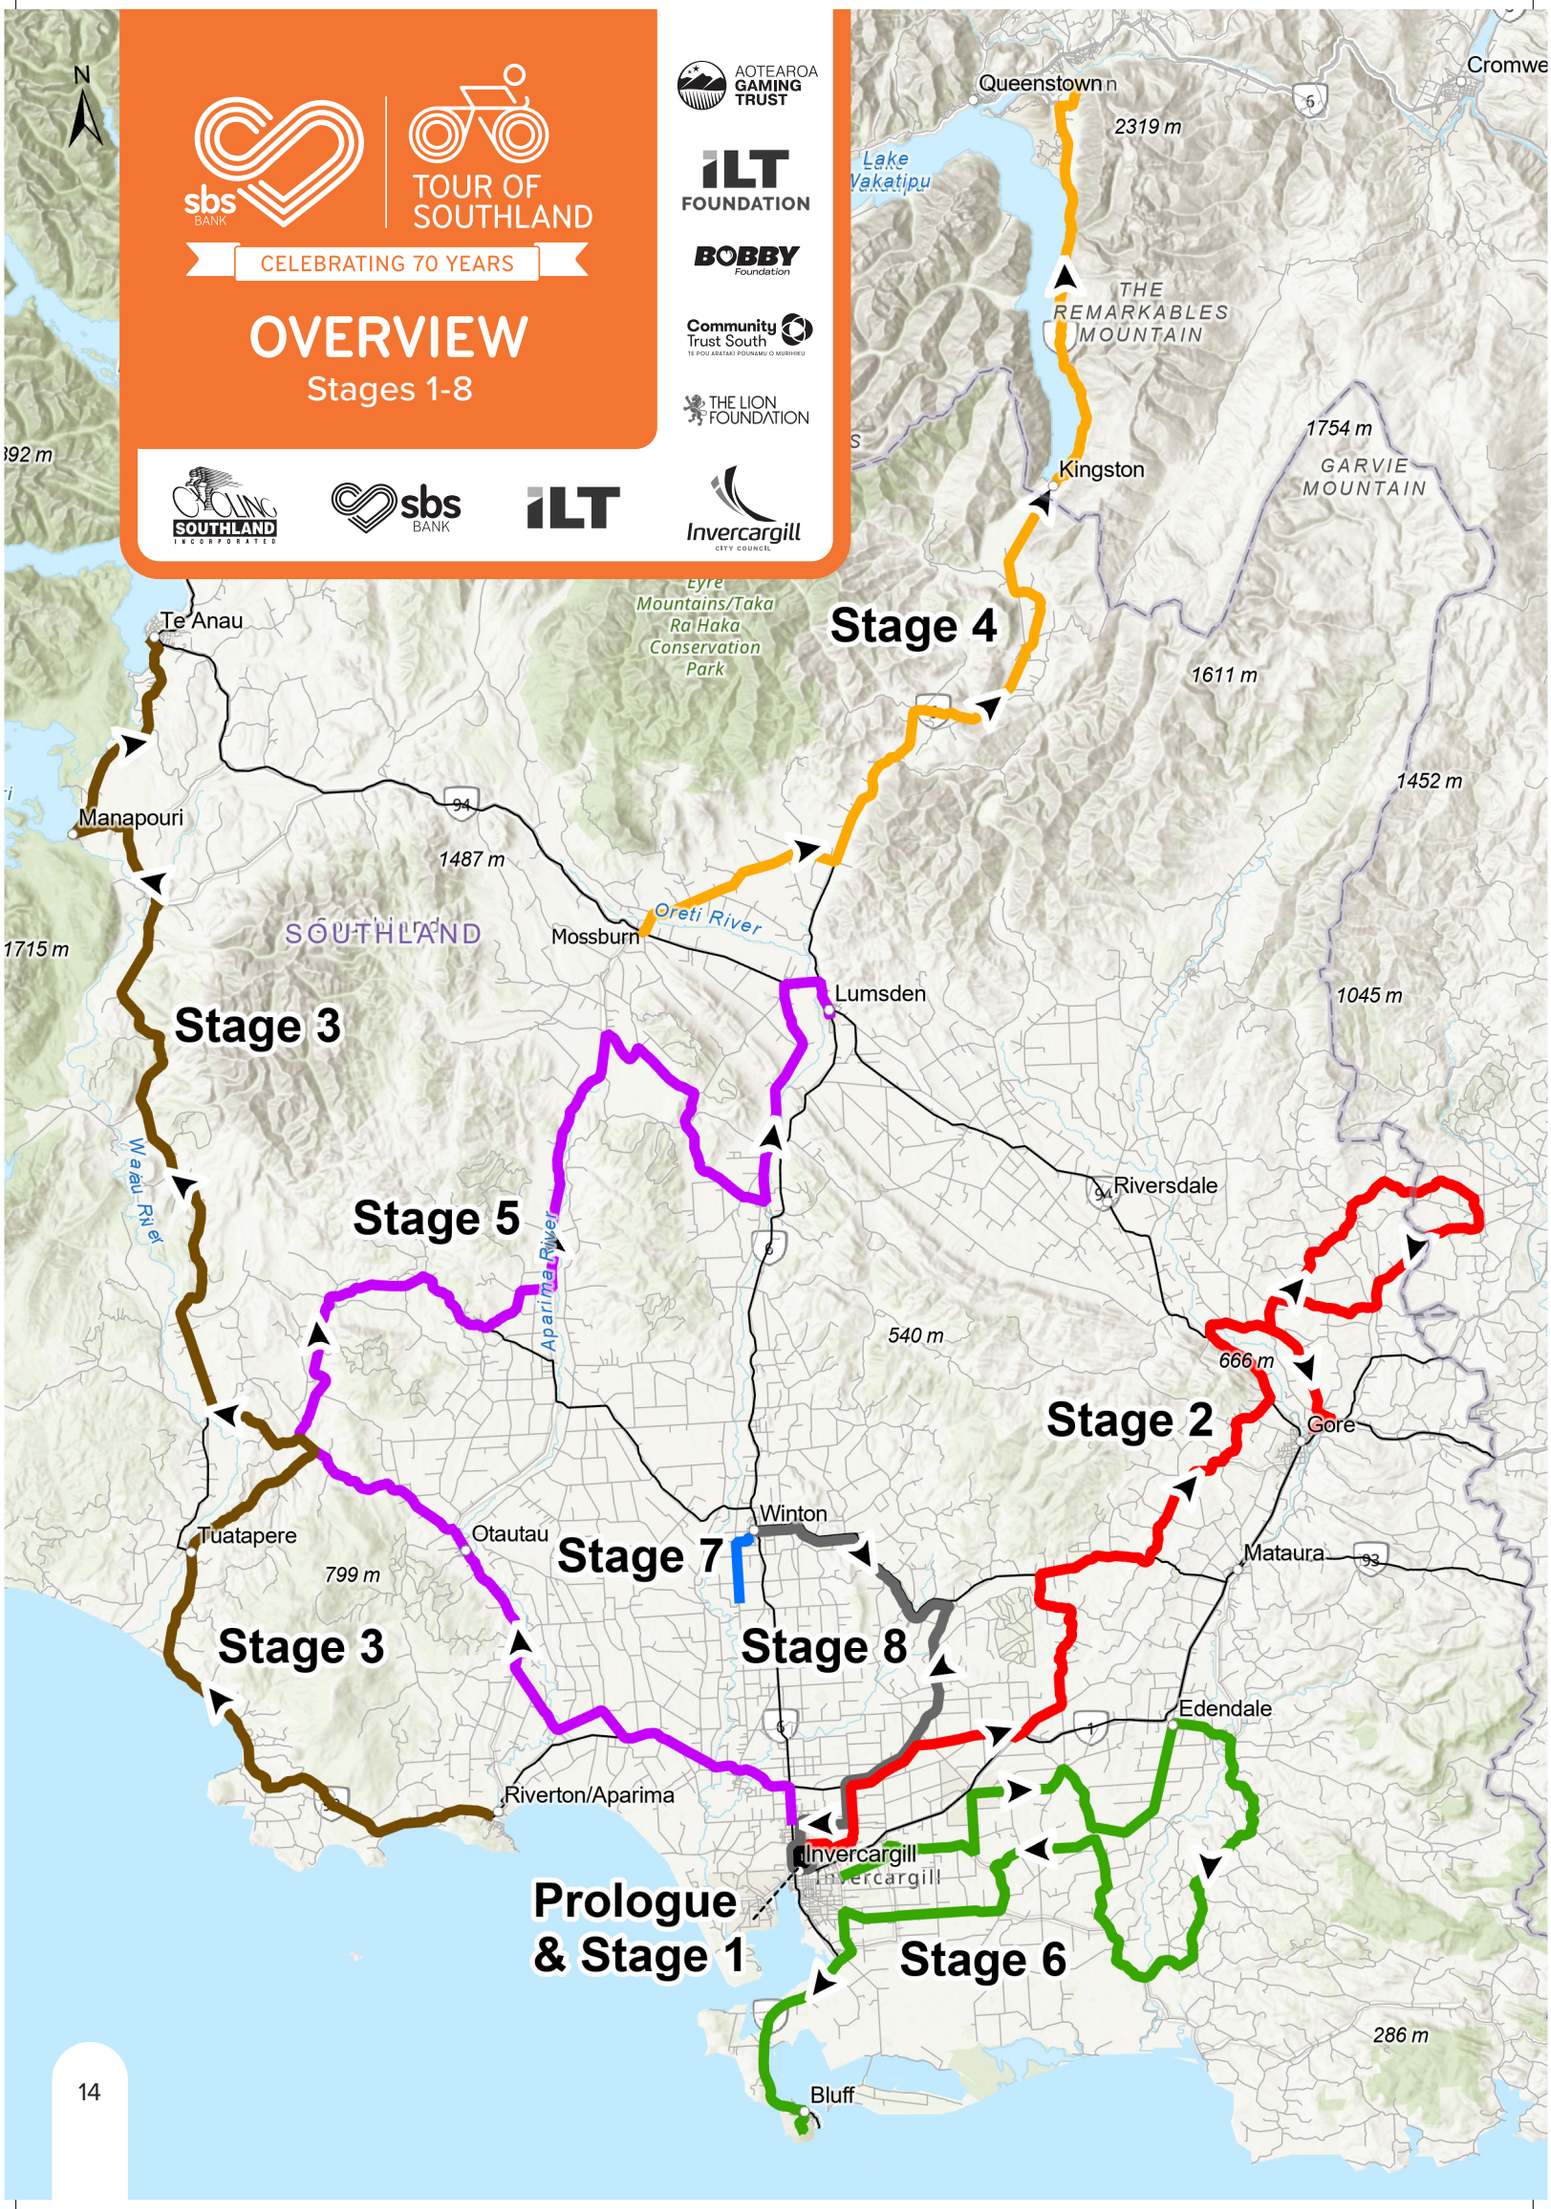

It is the rider’s responsibility to ensure that they conduct themselves in a safe manner to avoid causing danger to themselves and fellow competitors. It is also the rider’s responsibility to attend all pre-stage briefings which are held ten minutes before the allocated start time. It is the team manager’s responsibility to ensure that their respective team members have signed in as required and to have them present for the pre-stage briefing.

Race Envelope

It is important for all team support and team riders to be aware of the parameters of the race envelope. The front of the “race envelope” is indicated by the Traffic Management Services vehicle situated approximately 500m ahead of the front group of riders on the road and the tail of the “race envelope” is indicated by the silver truck, which is situated at the rear of the race convoy. Any rider or official vehicle, including team support, who have dropped behind the silver truck, are required to obey all New Zealand standard road rules.

We have also developed a Health & Safety Manual to assist event staff in delivering a safe environment for all those involved in the Tour. This includes a process to evolve and improve the manual as new risks emerge.

The document will be reviewed on Tour and will be updated accordingly. All accidents and incidents must be reported to the Health & Safety Officer and an accident form completed.
